

Freedom Rings

Courage paved a crimson path,
Free from fear of monarch's wrath.
Filled with hope on gleaming shores;
Released from fighting voiceless wars.

Let's esteem God-given rights;
Embrace with joy a happy life.
Let's prize the fight that made us free,
That gave us life and liberty.

Let's scorn constraints of despot ways,
Unoccupied by hate or frays.
Freedom rings throughout our land,
For every woman, child, and man.

© Sandy Ryan Pepp